if not otherwise provided for in law or in applicable rules and regulations having the force and effect of law, shall be settled in the following manner:

Step 1. The grievance shall first be taken to the Officer's immediate supervisor, who shall make an effort to resolve the problem within a reasonable period of time; within three(3) working days, if possible. At this level, a complaint or grievance need not be in writing. The time limit in this step may be extended by mutual consent;

Step 2. If not resolved at the aforementioned level, the grievance shall be put in writing, signed by the aggrieved officer, and submitted to the Chief Probation Officer, who shall acknowledge its receipt within three (3) working days and shall render a decision within seven (7) working days thereafter. In the case of absence of the Chief Probation Officer, the grievance may be handled by a designated assistant or it may proceed to the next step with the approval of both parties. The time limit in this step may be extended by mutual consent;

Step 3. If the aggrieved officer is not satisfied with the decision of the Chief Probation Officer, he/she may choose, within ten (10) working days of the decision of the Chief Probation Officer, to utilize one of the following three(3) options for a final determination of the grievance:

- (a) The Officer may appeal to the Civil Service Commission under the laws and rules governing the operation of that agency provided that the Commission agrees to hear the case; shall be rendered with reasonable promptness. The Judges may designate any Court employee other than the Chief and Assistant Chief Probation Officer, or other representative who is not an employee of the Courts, to hear and make recommendations to them for disposition; or

It is expressly understood that the right to submit a grievance to binding arbitration as outlined in Step 3(c) above is limited exclusively to the interpretation and application of the specific provisions of this Agreement. Other grievances not associated with the interpretation and application of this provision of the Agreement shall be subject only to the application of Steps 1, 2 and 3(a) and (b) for their resolution.

All grievances and complaints that are related to judicial policy and/or the authority of the Chief Justice, Supreme Court, Administrative Director of the Courts or the Assignment Judge under Rule 1:34-4, and any other applicable Statute or Court Rule, shall be limited to Step 3(b). In using the grievance procedure established herewith, an employee is entitled at each step to be represented by an attorney of his own choosing, or by a bona fide member of the Association designated to represent him pursuant to this Agreement.

Notwithstanding any procedures for the resolution of disputes, controversies or grievances established by any other statute,
